

WITCHELINA IS NATURE FOUNDATION SA'S LARGEST NATURE RESERVE.

NATURE FOUNDATION SA

Founded in 1981, Nature Foundation SA is a not-for-profit conservation organisation. The Foundation works to save, protect and restore South Australia's biodiversity by:

- restoring unique habitats and revitalising damaged ecosystems
- saving threatened species
- revitalising wetlands and floodplains along the River Murray
- funding conservation research projects
- encouraging environmental education and citizen science
- nature-based tourism and geotourism.

THE BEST OUTBACK EXPERIENCES HAPPEN AT

WITCHELINA NATURE RESERVE

At 4,200 square kilometres, Witchelina showcases an impressive variety of mountain, rangeland and desert landscapes, spectacular geology, and rich biodiversity.

With the support of our members, corporate partners, government, and the Adnyamathanha and Arabana traditional owners of the land, we have begun the journey of restoration and revitalisation of this incredible arid ecosystem.

Come and see for yourself why the best outback experiences happen at Witchelina!
